FOREWORD

Civilian Manpower Statistics (CMS) is a quarterly publication prepared by the Washington Headquarters Services, Directorate for Information Operations and Reports (WHS/DIOR) of the Office of the Secretary of Defense.

CMS provides statistical information on the civilian work force of the Department of Defense (DoD), with the exception of personnel of the National Security Agency, Defense Intelligence Agency, and personnel paid from nonappropriated funds. It is produced primarily from an integrated data base developed and maintained by WHS/DIOR from monthly information provided to the Office of Personnel Management on Standard Form 113-A, Report of Federal Civilian Employment.

GLOSSARY

Civil Functions. Functions primarily associated with the civil works program of the Army Corps of Engineers. This program encompasses planning, programming, designing, constructing, and operating Federal water resource projects for navigation, flood control, hydroelectric power, water supply, recreation, and related activities. Civil functions also includes cemeterial workers (Army) and a conservation management employee (Air Force).

Competitive Service. All civil service positions in the Executive Branch, except:

- Positions which are specifically exempted from the competitive service by or under statute;
- Positions for which appointments are made by nomination for confirmation by the Senate, unless the Senate otherwise directs, or when specifically included in the competitive service by statute; and
- 3. Positions in the Senior Executive Service.

Also includes civil service positions not in the Executive Branch which are specifically included in the competitive service by statute.

Direct Hire Civilians. Employees hired directly by an agency of the Department of Defense (DoD). Included are Foreign Nationals hired by DoD to support DoD activities in their home countries.

DoD. Department of Defense.

Excepted Service. All positions in the Executive Branch of the Federal government (except Senior Executive Service positions) which are specifically excepted from the competitive service by or pursuant to a statute, the President, or the Office of Personnel Management.

Eormer OMB Ceiling Employment. Employees formerly subject to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) employment controls used to administer Presidential employment ceiling limitations. Refer to the Office of Personnel Management Operating Manual, The SF-113 Summary Data Reporting System, for a delineation of employment formerly exempt from ceiling controls.

Full-Time Employees. Employees who are regularly scheduled to work the number of hours and days in the administrative work week for their employment group or class. (Usually 5 days of 8 hours each.)

Indirect Hire Civilians. Foreign Nationals assigned to support U.S. forces through contracts or agreements with foreign governments (or agencies thereof). These personnel are employees of the foreign governments involved.

Intermittent Employees. Employees who are employed with no prescheduled tour of duty (i.e., employed on irregular or occasional basis).

Military Functions. Activities normally associated with the Uniformed Services.
